

Resolution on Germany's need to ratify the UN Convention against Corruption

The Annual Members Meeting (AMM) of Transparency International (TI), held in Berlin on 17-18 October 2009, calls upon the recently elected members of the German parliament to swiftly tighten the German criminal code regarding the bribery of parliamentarians to remove the main obstruction of Germany's outstanding ratification of the United Nations' Convention on Corruption.

###

Adopted 18 October 2009, Berlin